INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. NOTE.—Affidavits should be made, whenever practicable, before a notary public, clerk of the court, or before a person having a seal. If sworn to before an Indian agent or disbursing agent of the Indian service, it need not be executed before a notary, etc.

Annie Bird being first duly sworn, deposes and says:
through Ross Smith, who was duly sworn and qualified as interpreter.

That I am 52 years of age. My father's Indian name was Ga-loe-is-tee. My mother's English name was Lucy Axe. My maternal grandfather's name was Chep-ka-nee-skeg. Wa-le-yah was my maternal grandmother's name. My father's father has been dead so long I do not know his name. My father's mother's name was Ah-kin-nah. My father never went west. My father, I think, has received money from the Government, but I cannot tell on what roll. I think my father died about ten years ago. I guess my father was about 80 years of age when he died, as he was just a small boy when the Indians were removed from this country. My father was born on the Hiawasse river, Cherokee county, N. C. He was quite a young man when he left this county and went to Swain County. He died near Cherokee, Swain county, N. C. I do not know under what name my father was enrolled unless it was Ga-loe-is-tee (Gah-law-is-ka). My mother was born in Graham county, N. C. My mother died about 20 years ago. She was about 50 years of age when she died. I have a brother by the name of La-he-yu (Li-huh) Chapman 710). I have an older sister by the name of La-nah. La-he-yu is two years older than I am. My father's brother's name was Lewis (or Lou-ih). He had a sister by the name of Sah-luh, or Sallie, and one sister by the name of Betsey, and another sister by the name of Sah-la-tah, or Charlotte, another sister by the name of Ah-wa-te (Uh-wa-te). (Her father is probably enrolled by Chapman, 708, as Kul-le-us-tih)

I don't know whether I was ever enrolled by Swetland or Hester. My father and mother got money when I was a little girl. It was in Swain County, by Rabun Fork, where they got it. I do not know how much they got. My Indian surname is Lo-sih ~~Lo-sih~~ and Che-squa is my husband's Indian name. My husband's sister is Ah-yah-stah (Hester 1299). I only had one sister and brother enrolled that I know of on the Hester Roll and they were La-nah or La-nih, and La-he-yu or Lihuh. I had a sister by the name of Rose and a brother by the name of Jesse, (Yeh-sih). (Hester 886-7-8-9)

Dan Bird #42913 is no relation to me but is a son of my husband, Steve Bird, by Nancy Down, whose Indian name is Nur-cih. Steve Bird has made application. Dan Bird is a full-blood Cherokee. Lloyd Bird is a full brother of Dan Bird.

Sir:

The following letter was addressed to you some time ago:

"Relative to the application filed by you for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, please give the names of the parents and grandparents from whom the child adopted by you inherits Cherokee blood, and on whose behalf you have filed supplemental application."

In your reply, you do not give the desired information, but give information regarding your own claim. There is no further information desired regarding your own claim, but it is absolutely necessary that you inform this Office regarding your ward, or adopted son, Ute Crow. If Indian, to what tribe of Indians does he belong?

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE,

Cherokee, N. C., August 12, 1893.

Hon. Guion Miller,
Special Comm'r Court of Claims,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir,

Replying to your inquiry of the 14th instant relative to Jane Mathis and Jehn M. Mathis, I have to say that I can get no information concerning these parties other than that they are supposed to be descendants of one Jonathan Blythe a white man who lived among these Indians in early days.

Neither Jonathan Blythe or his wife had any Indian blood. David Owl says he does not know Jehn M. Mathis and did not know of any Indians of that name in Cherokee County in the time he was living there.

I have not been able to communicate with James Blythe, but have asked several of the old Indians who formerly lived near Murphey, N. C.

I inclose herewith a notice received by Will Childaske which notice he says he received after you left Cherokee. I suppose his case was disposed of while you were here, but as I have no definite information, I told him I would ask for him.

Very respectfully,

Wm. M. Harris

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of March 24, 1909, W E A - 10045, addressed to Will Childaski, regarding the supplementary application submitted by him for the enrollment of Ute Crow, his adopted son, I respectfully submit the following information secured from Will Chiltoskie, Chief John G. Welch and Interpreter David Owl.

Ute Crow is a step ^{son} of Will Chiltoskie and is now known as Ute Chiltoskie, not Ute Crow. The father, Peter Crow, died about four years ago. His mother, Charlotte Chiltoskie, is living and is the wife of Will Chiltoskie. The boy is carried as 15/16 Cherokee Indian blood, his father being 3/4 and his mother 7/8. The grandfather on his mother's side was James Hornbuckle and grandmother Awih Hornbuckle, both having ^{being} dead for several years. The grandfather on the father's side was a full blood known as Uhelache; the grandmother was 1/2 blood named Susanne Crow. All of the above named relatives of the boy are part Cherokee Indian blood.

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the decree of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, please state under what names your parents were enrolled in 1851, being careful to spell same correctly and write plainly?

Were your grandparents ever enrolled as Eastern Cherokees? If so, state when, where and under what names?

Why have you never been enrolled?

Give any other information obtainable tending to establish your right to participate in this fund.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

For share of money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Act of Congress approved June 30, 1906, in accordance with the decrees of the Court of Claims of May 18, 1905, and May 28, 1906.

COURT OF CLAIMS
EASTERN CHEROKEES.
Rec. JUL 17 1907

No. 10084

Lizzie Washam, after being first duly sworn,
deposes and says:

I am 56 years of age. I am an alotee and drew strip money. My mother and father were both full blood Cherokees. There were two children older than I.
I guess my mother and father were married at the time of the payment and think they drew money. I have heard my mother talk of it. I did not get the money. My oldest sister was named Gul-sti-ah. I have never gotten any Old Settler money.

SUBSCRIBED and sworn to before me at Pryor Creek,

will state I am a full blood Cherokee Indian. My father was enrolled in 1851 as Little Lacy, and my mother as Akey. I was enrolled by my father when young by the name of Eva Lacy. My parents died when I was young and I don't remember much about them. The best I remember my grandparents were enrolled as Dawson. but this I am not sure of. in about the year 1886 I was enrolled as Eva Rogers. and about the year 1894 was enrolled as Eva C. Field. I was young as above stated when my parents died and it might be that the name I give is not the English name under which they were enrolled, but the above is to the best of my knowledge, and should I be required to furnish any further information it would necessitate my paying out quite a good deal
for my relations, but quite a distance from here, but should you require it advise me at once. would have answered this sooner but I failed to get it - Respectfully yours
